Creating The World's Leading Platform For Online Communities.

Tapatalk has created a reader-style app that centralizes all of the world's online forums into one convenient location. Forum users no longer have to open individual browser pages to visit each of their forums. Instead, they can simply open the Tapatalk app to stay up-to-date with the forums they love.

Feedback

IA "We originally partnered with Tapatalk at the request of our members. As a bonus we're now seeing a few hundred dollars a month in revenue. Per member the earnings from Tapatalk are better than mobile web." — Anthony, Audizine

R2R "On average, Tapatalk delivers 200-300 new registered members to my forum monthly." — David, Reef2Reef

HTCMania "We average nearly 90,000 new posts per month through Tapatalk. Tapatalk users are far more active in adding posts and photos than my non-Tapatalk users" — Anthony, HTCMania

Branded App Service

Like Tapatalk app but want it under your own branding? Now you can create your own branded app for your community for as long as $10/month. We will assist you to submit your app to Apple App Store and Google Play Store.

We handle the submission and even app update for you. All you need to do is to upload some icons, decide the appearance and the content you want to include in our console. Here are the feature highlights:

YOUR NAME AND LOGO ON AN APP
IN BOTH APP STORES

GOOGLE APP INDEXING TO IMPROVE
YOUR SEO RANKINGS BY GOOGLE

IOS CONTENT LINKING SUPPORT TO YOUR APP

CONTROL OF ADVERTISING THROUGH
GOOGLE DFP AND ADMOB

SMART BANNER AND POST SIGNATURE
DIRECTING MEMBERS TO YOUR APP

CUSTOMIZATION OF DIFFERENT TABS
AND COLORS

MONTH-TO-MONTH SUBSCRIPTION -
NO LONG TERM COMMITMENTS

Looking for even more control and features?

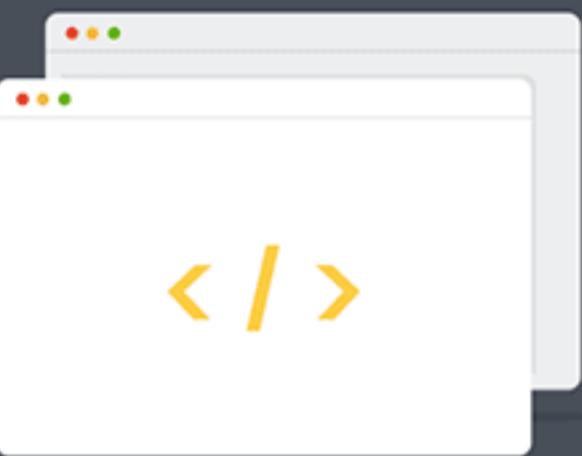

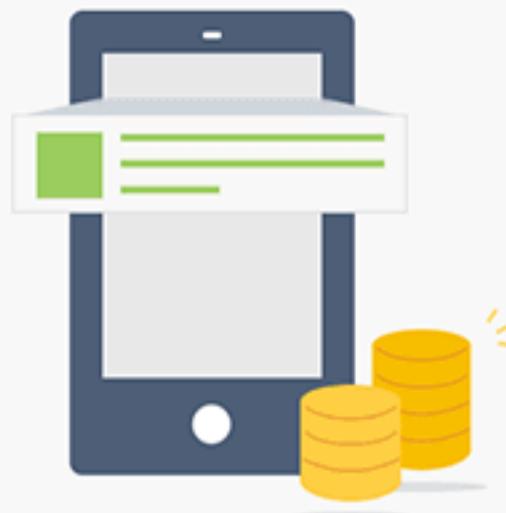

If you prefer to list the branded apps under your own developer account and add the full screen Google DFP/Admob interstitials ads support, you can purchase our $40/month add-on to support both features.

Instead of Tapatalk submitting the apps for approval, you can download the binaries to submit under your Google or Apple developer accounts.

Earn Money with Mobile Native Ads

Tapatalk works with all major Ads Network including Google Admob, AdX, DFP and more so you can fine-tune your ads inventory and deliver them on mobile app in either Tapatalk mobile app, or your own branded app. Alternatively, use Tapatalk Ads Network to deliver ads and earn revenue directly with us.

Works with any community software

Tapatalk works with all major open-source and commercial community software including vBulletin, xenForo, phpBB and more. A piece of mind that Tapatalk will continue to work regardless which community software you chose to host your discussions.

SaaS/Cloud-based Community

Tapatalk partners with many of the cloud-based community software such as Proboards, Yuku, FreeForums.org, Lefora, Forumer, Createforum.com and Network54. Thinking of building a brand new community but setting up your own server is a thing of the past? Try them out and connect your new community in Tapatalk.

New Bell & Ross BR-X1 RS16 - Formula 1 inspired

To celebrate Bell & Ross' partnership with the Renault Sport Formula 1 racing team as the official timekeeper, Bell & Ross has announced 2 new limited edition versions of the BR-X1 Carbon Forge Chronograph and the BR-X1 Carbon Forge Tourbillon. These models are limited to 250 and 20 pieces, respectively and will only be sold at actual F1 events!

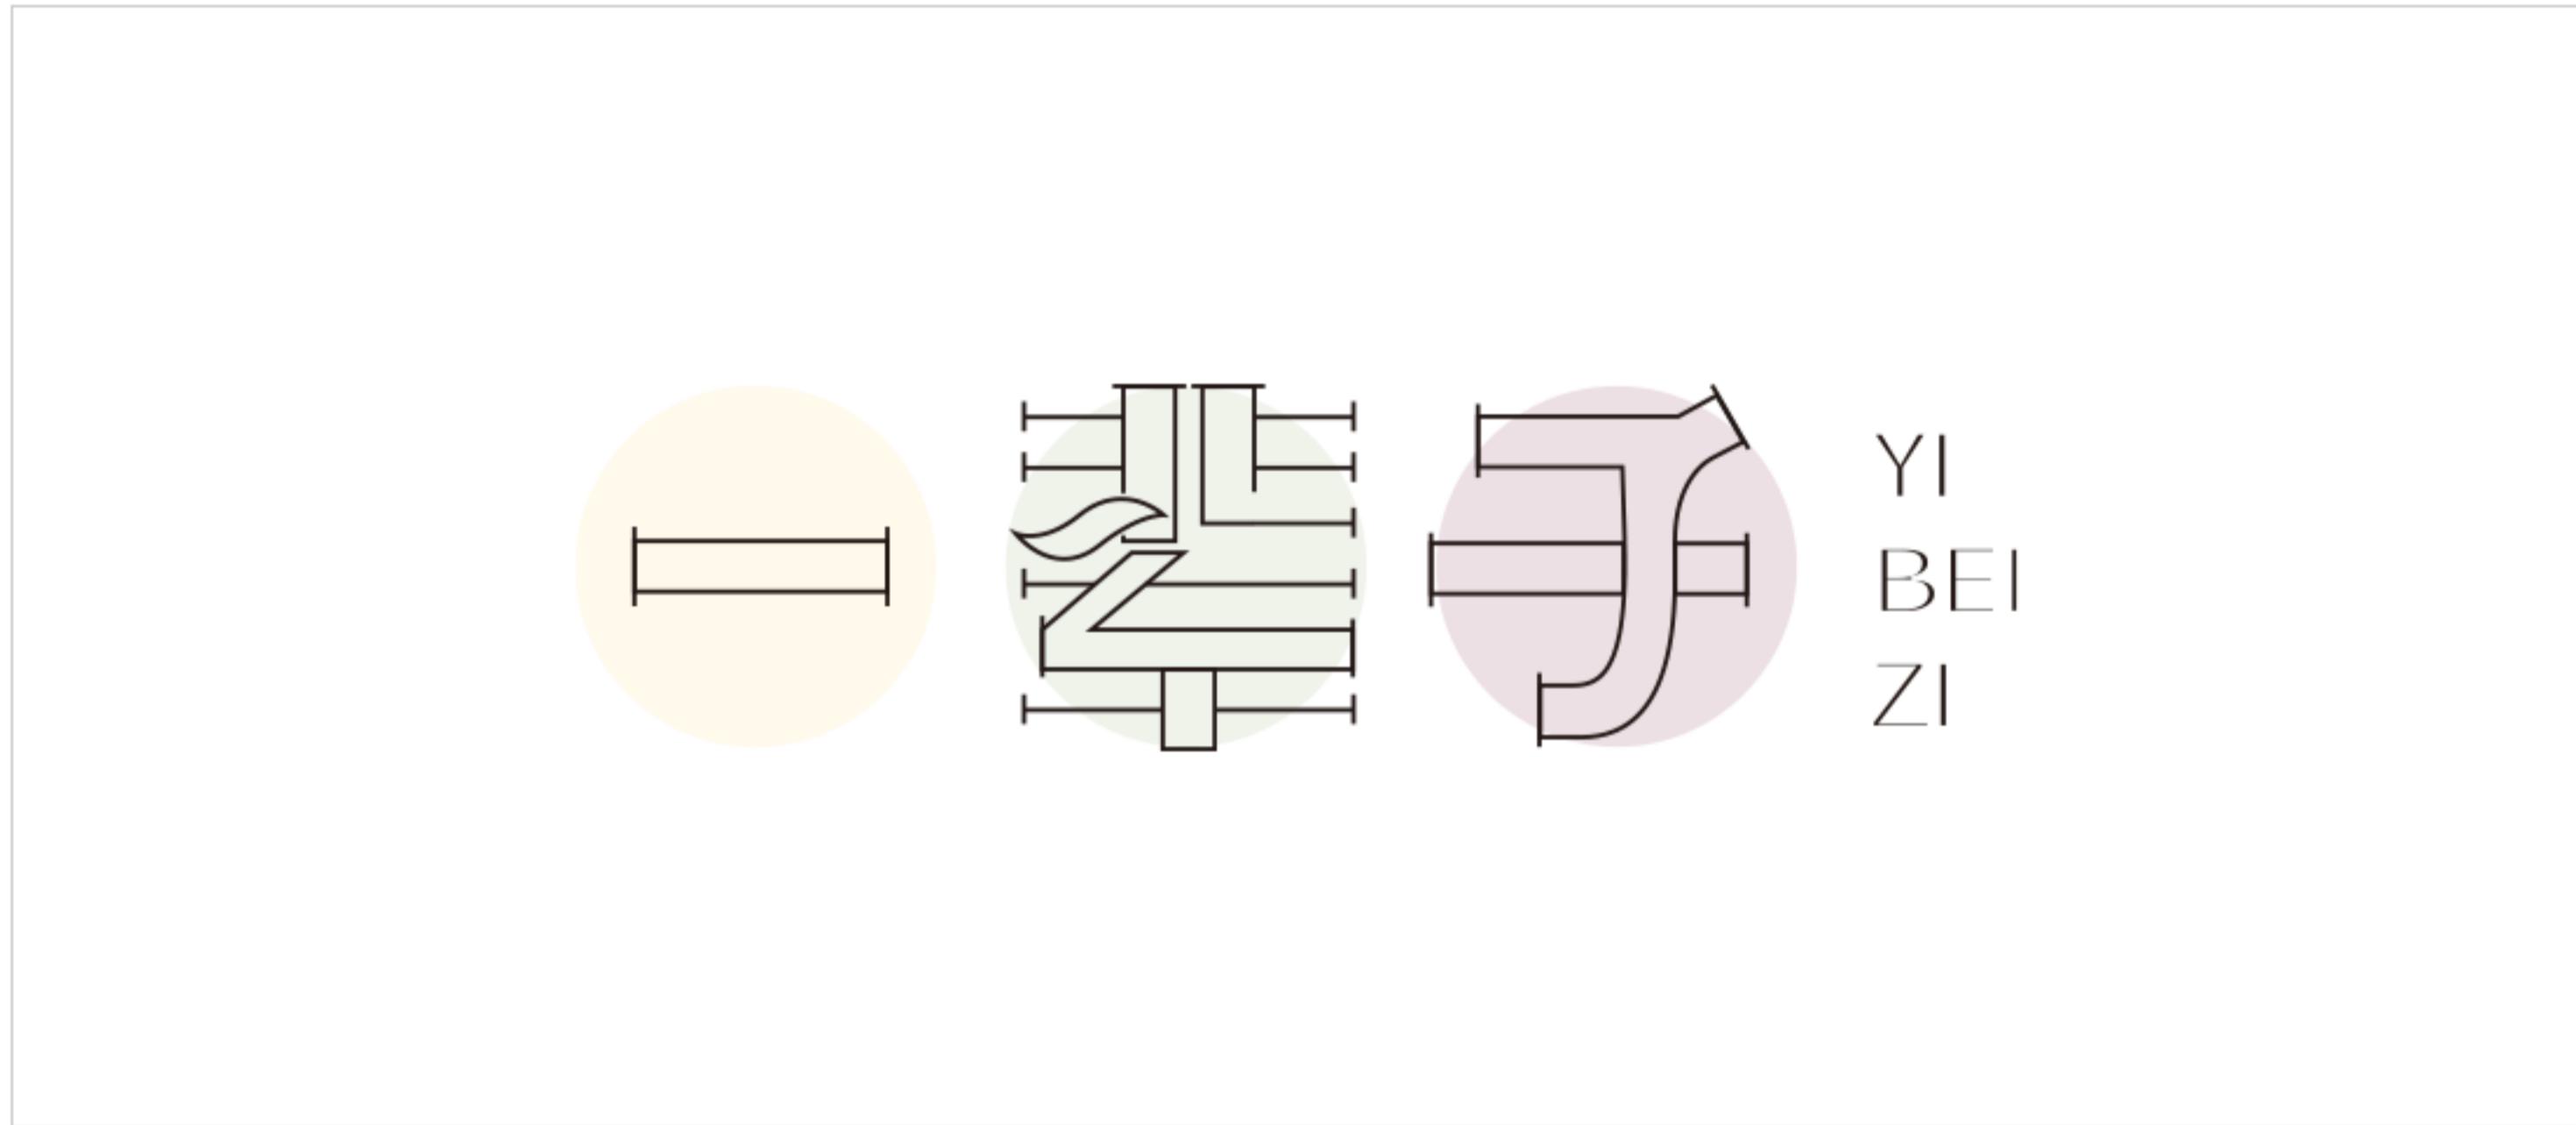

The yellow accents around the bezel, pushers, and chronograph hands match the Renault Sport F1 car's livery perfectly. What do you think?
